Improvement in functioning of Labour Courts

†3781. SHRI NAND KISHORE YADAV: Will the Minister of LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether ten Labour Courts and three Tribunals in Delhi are in a pitiable condition and 20,000 cases are still pending in these Courts:

(b) whether the posts of Presiding Officers in most of these Courts and Tribunals are not being filled due to non-availability of Judges;

(c) whether unsatisfactory service conditions and facilities in these Courts have been the main reasons for capable Judicial Officers not getting attracted towards these courts; and

(d) if so, the remedial measures proposed to be taken for bringing improvement in the functioning of the Labour Courts?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR AND EMPLOYMENT (SHRI K. CHANDRASEKHAR RAO): (a) According to the information furnished by the Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi, there are, presently twelve Labour Courts and three Industrial Tribunals in Delhi for adjudicating Industrial Disputes. As on January, 2005, the total number of pending cases are 24810.

(b) The posts of Presiding Officers in respect of Labour Courts and Industrial Tribunals of the Government of National Capital Territory of Delhi have been encadred and officers of Delhi Higher Judicial Services are posted as Presiding Officers of these Courts.
